Mark E. Schwartz, CRPC^{®2}, CFS^{®17}, RF^{™18} Biographical Information

Branch Location: One Preserve Parkway, Suite 610, Rockville, MD 20852

Educational Background and Business Experience

Mr. Schwartz was born in 1947. He graduated Magna Cum Laude from Lehigh University in 1969 with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and from Stanford University in 1970 with a Broadcast Journalism degree. He was the President and Chief Compliance Officer of TriCapital Advisors Inc. from May 2006 until he joined Bronfman Rothschild in February 2017. Mr. Schwartz is also a Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor^{SM 2}, a Certified Fund Specialist^{®17} and a Registered Fiduciary^{™18}.

Mr. Schwartz currently has passed the FINRA Series 65 Uniform Investment Adviser Law Exam.

Disciplinary Information

Mr. Schwartz does not have any disciplinary information to disclose. He has not: (a) been party to a criminal or civil action in a domestic, foreign, or military court, (b) been party to an administrative proceeding before the SEC, any other federal regulatory agency, any state regulatory agency, or any foreign financial regulatory authority; or (c) been party to a self-regulatory proceeding.

Other Business Activities

Mr. Schwartz is a Managing Director, Wealth Advisory at Bronfman Rothschild. He also serves as appointed trustee to the University of Maryland College Park Foundation. He serves on the budget, audit and investment committees and the real estate committee, assisting in monitoring the Foundation's finances and investments

In addition, he serves on the Board of Directors of Steben Select Multi Strategy, Steben Select Multi Strategy Master Fund and Steben Alternative Investment Funds, which are mutual funds registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940. As a director, Mr. Schwartz helps monitor fund operations, performance and cost of the funds. Board members are tasked to ensure the funds are organized, operated and managed in the best interest of the fund shareholders (i.e. investors). It should be noted that Bronfman Rothschild does not serve as investment adviser or sub-adviser to the funds. Mr. Schwartz serves as a director in his individual capacity separate from his responsibilities and duties for Bronfman Rothschild. Steben and Company is the investment adviser to the funds. Steben and Company and Bronfman Rothschild are not affiliated companies.

The fact that Mr. Schwartz serves as director to an unaffiliated fund company creates potential conflicts of interest. Mr. Schwartz could choose to select the Steben funds over other registered investment companies because of his affiliation with the funds. Further, in his role as director, Mr. Schwartz could be given inside information about the funds that is generally not otherwise available to the public. To control for these and other potential conflicts of interests, it is the policy of Bronfman Rothschild to not recommend or purchase shares of the Steben funds for client accounts managed by Bronfman Rothschild. Further, Bronfman Rothschild personnel, excluding Mr. Schwartz, are generally prohibited by Bronfman Rothschild from personally investing in Steben funds.

Additional Compensation

Mr. Schwartz does not receive any additional economic benefit from third parties for providing advisory services.

Supervision

Hoyt Stastney is the Chief Compliance Officer for Bronfman Rothschild and is responsible for supervision of Mr. Schwartz's investment advisory activities to insure compliance with regulatory and internal procedures. His contact information is available on the cover page of this brochure.

Professional Designations

¹ The Certified Financial Planner™ (CFP®):

The CFP® certification is granted by Certified Financial Planners Board of Standards, Inc. The certification is voluntary; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. Currently, more than 62,000 individuals have obtained CFP® certification in the United States.

To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education - Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board's studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services and attain a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university). CFP Board's financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning;
- Examination - Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination, administered in 10 hours over a two-day period, includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one's ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one's knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances;
- Experience - Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); and
- Ethics - Agree to be bound by CFP Board's Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks:

- Continuing Education - Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and
- Ethics - Renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interest of their clients.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP Board's enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.

² The Chartered Retirement Planning CounselorSM (CRPC[®]):

The Chartered Retirement Planning CounselorSM (CRPC[®]) Program focuses on the pre- and post-retirement needs of individuals, allowing one to transform the retirement planning process into a positive experience. Enrollment in the program allows one to study a variety of principles in the retirement planning field. The program guides one through the retirement process from start to finish, addressing issues such as estate planning and asset management.

The College for Financial Planning[®] awards the Chartered Retirement Planning CounselorSM and CRPC[®] designation to students who:

- successfully complete the program;
- pass the final examination; and
- comply with the Code of Ethics, which includes agreeing to abide by the Standards of Professional Conduct and Terms and Conditions. Applicants must also disclose of any criminal, civil, self-regulatory organization, or governmental agency inquiry, investigation, or proceeding relating to their professional or business conduct. Conferment of the designation is contingent upon the College for Financial Planning's review of matters either self-disclosed or which are discovered by the College that are required to be disclosed.

Students must sign and return the Code of Ethics forms within six months of passing the final exam. Failure to complete and submit the forms within this time frame may result in termination of the individual's candidacy. If an individual wishes to apply for authorization to use the Marks in the future, he or she may be required to fulfill the initial designation requirements in place at the time of passing the exam.

Successful students receive a certificate and are granted the right to use the designation on correspondence and business cards for a two-year period.

Continued use of the CRPC[®] designation is subject to ongoing renewal requirements. Every two years individuals must renew their right to continue using the CRPC[®] designation by:

- completing 16 hours of continuing education;
- reaffirming to abide by the Standards of Professional Conduct, Terms and Conditions, and self-disclose any criminal, civil, self-regulatory organization, or governmental agency inquiry, investigation, or proceeding relating to their professional or business conduct; and
- paying a biennial renewal fee of $75.

³ The Certified Divorce Financial Analyst[™] (CDFA[™]):

The Certified Divorce Financial Analyst[™] (CDFA[™]) is a professional certification granted by the Institute for Divorce Financial Analysts[™] (IDFA[™]). To attain the right to use the CDFA[™], an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education: Candidates must develop their theoretical understanding and knowledge of the financial aspects of divorce by completing a comprehensive course of study approved by the IDFA.
- Examination: Candidates must pass a four-part Certification Examination that tests their understanding and knowledge of the financial aspects of divorce. In addition, candidates must demonstrate the practical application of this knowledge in the divorce process.

- Experience: Candidates must have a minimum of three years' experience in a financial or legal capacity prior to earning the right to use the CDFA™ certification mark.
- Ethics: Candidates agree to abide by a strict code of professional conduct known as the "Code of Ethics and Professional Responsibility," which sets forth their ethical responsibilities to the public, clients, employers and other professionals. The IDFA may perform a background check during this process, and each candidate for CDFA certification must disclose any investigations or legal proceedings relating to his or her professional or business conduct.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CDFA™ designation:

- Continuing Education: Minimum of 15 hours of continuing education every two years, that are specifically related to the field of divorce.
- Ethics: Must voluntarily disclose any public, civil, criminal, or disciplinary actions that may have been taken against them during the past two years as part of the renewal process. If a complaint has been brought against a CDFA by another professional or member of the general public, the CDFA must be examined and cleared by IDFA's Ethics Committee to maintain their designation.

4 Certified Public Accountant (CPA®):

The designation is administered through Investment Management Consultants Association (IMCA).

7 The Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA®):

The Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) charter is globally respected, graduate-level investment credential established in 1962 and awarded by CFA Institute, the largest global association of investment professionals.

To earn the CFA charter, candidates must: 1) pass three sequential, six-hour examinations; 2) have at least four years of qualified professional investment experience; 3) join CFA Institute as member; and 4) commit to abide by, and annually reaffirm, their adherence to the CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct.

High Ethical Standards

The CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct, enforced through an active professional conduct program, require CFA charterholders to:

- Place their clients' interests ahead of their own
- Maintain independence and objectivity
- Act with integrity
- Maintain and improve their professional competence
- Disclose conflicts of interest and legal matters

Global Recognition

Passing the three CFA exams is a difficult feat that requires extensive study (successful candidates report spending an average of 300 hours of study per level). Earning the CFA charter demonstrates mastery of many of the advanced skills needed for investment analysis and decision making in today's quickly evolving global financial industry. As a result, employers and clients are increasingly seeking CFA charterholders, often making the charter a prerequisite for employment.

Additionally, regulatory bodies in 19 countries recognize the CFA charter as proxy for meeting certain licensing requirements, and more than 125 colleges and universities around the world have incorporated a majority of the CFA Program curriculum into their own finance courses.

Comprehensive and Current Knowledge

The CFA Program curriculum provides a comprehensive framework of knowledge for investment decision making and is firmly grounded in the knowledge and skills used every day in the investment profession. The three levels of the CFA Program test a proficiency with a wide range of fundamental and advanced investment topics, including ethical and professional standards, fixed-income and equity analysis, alternative and derivative investment, economics, financial reporting standards, portfolio management, and wealth planning.

The CFA Program curriculum is updated every year by experts from around the world to ensure that candidates learn the most relevant and practical new tools, ideas, and investment and wealth management skills to reflect the dynamic and complex nature of the profession.
